Purpose of this playlist

This playlist reflects the restorative energy of Hexagram 18, highlighting the healing that happens when people revisit what needs attention and bring care to what has been neglected. Each track carries the theme of renewal, correction, and bringing things back into balance with patience and intention. These songs support people who are working through old patterns, strengthening foundations, or tending to areas of life that are ready for improvement. They bring a steady, hopeful tone that encourages clarity, gentle repair, and the confidence that growth returns when the roots are nourished.
